

2014 STUDENT MEDIA STIPEND PROGRAM

Attending Colorado State University next fall? Apply now to receive a $600 award ($300 per semester) to work and explore media opportunities within Student Media's award-winning organization. Recipients work hands-on with students and staff to produce broadcast, digital and print media at Colorado State University. Interested students will have the opportunity to be promoted into paid management positions.

All high school seniors interested in continuing their journalism career or interested in exploring media, design or business opportunities while at CSU should apply.

POSSIBLE AREAS OF WORK INCLUDE:

Online media, television, radio, print, creative design, photography, writing, video production, business, sales and content marketing.

APPLICATION PROCESS

All high school seniors interested in student media in college should apply for a stipend. Up to five stipends will be awarded. To apply for a stipend, complete the application form and include a letter of nomination from your high school adviser. For more information visit our website: Collegian.com

APPLICATIONS ARE DUE FRIDAY, MAY 2, 2014

For a video look at all Student Media branches, history and programs go to Collegian.com/rocky-mountain-student-media-corporation/

SEND ALL APPLICATIONS TO:

Student Media Stipends
Rocky Mountain Student Media Corp.
C/O Stipend Coordinator
Lory Student Center Box 13
Fort Collins, CO 80523

IMPORTANT DATES:

APPLICATION DEADLINE:
Friday, May 2nd

AWARDS ANNOUNCED:
Monday, June 2nd

STUDENT MEDIA FALL TRAINING:
Wednesday, August 20th

CSU FALL CLASSES START:
Monday, August 25th

THE ROCKY MOUNTAIN COLLEGIAN is the state's only daily student newspaper. The Collegian is Colorado State University's community news source, a platform for discussion, and, laboratory for development of student staff.

CTV is dedicated to providing Colorado State students and organizations with a forum to inform, educate, and entertain. CTV is a student-run, Emmy-winning television news organization.

COLLEGIAN.COM is an innovative way to deliver community news, sports and entertainment to digital audiences across multiple platforms.

KCSU serves the CSU campus and community 24/7. The student-run radio station provides a unique opportunity for students to learn professional skills in a fun environment.

COLLEGE AVENUE is a magazine featuring arts and entertainment.

2014 – 15 ROCKY MOUNTAIN STUDENT MEDIA STIPEND APPLICATION

Send completed application to: Rocky Mountain Student Media Corp., c/o Stipend Coordinator, Lory Student Center Box 13, Fort Collins, CO 80523 or complete this interactive form and email to Neill.Woelk@colostate.edu. You may include a resume and/or cover letter and letter of recommendation.

Full Name: _____

Address: _____

City: _____ State: _____ Zip: _____

Phone Number: _____

Email: _____

School: _____

GPA: _____ Intended major at CSU: _____

I worked on my high school or community:

___Newspaper ___Website ___Yearbook ___Television/Video Show

___Magazine ___Radio Station

Please explain why you would like to be part of the student media program at Colorado State University.

Why would you be a good candidate for the 2014-15 Student Media stipend?